

Amy Ireland Bourgault

Amy's professional background includes non-profit management and state government relations. In 2015, she assumed the role of Interim Executive Director of New Hampshire Kids Count and prior to that role, she was the Executive Director of the Community Colleges of New Hampshire Foundation. She served as Chief of Staff of the New Hampshire State Senate, and as a senior staff member within the New Hampshire General Court for 17 years. She has extensive experience in researching policy and legislation, public relations, and resource development. She is also knowledgeable in public policy, non-profit oversight and compliance, and the state administrative rules process.

Amy currently serves on a special events board at the Concord Hospital Office of Philanthropy, and the State Commission to Address Childhood Hunger. She was elected locally for 3 terms as Delegate to the State Republican Convention. She studied Business Administration at New Hampshire College and Marketing at the University of Rhode Island. She lives in Concord, New Hampshire, with her husband and two sons.

Contact Information:
ajireland@comcast.net
(603)496-6846
238 Elm Street
Concord, NH 03303