

CITY OF CONCORD

REPORT TO THE MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL

FROM: David Gill, Parks and Recreation Director

DATE: October 16, 2018

SUBJECT: Main Fall/Winter Brochure and new Adult Activities Guide

Information

Attached are copies of the regular Fall/Winter Brochure and new Adult Activities Guide from the Concord Parks and Recreation Department. The regular Fall/Winter Brochure was delivered to all elementary schools students on October 17, 2018 and the Adult Activities Guide was available week of October 21. Registration is now underway for all programs.

Highlights:

- All programs and events sponsored by the department from November, 2018 to end of February 2019.
- Many New Youth and Adult Programs as part of the new City Wide Community Center Operation
- Hours of operation for the new community center increase to 7 days a week during the winter months.

The brochures are also available online at www.concordparksandrec.com and printed copies are available at the Community Centers, City Hall, Library and many other locations around town. Information on our upcoming programs is also included on the department's very active facebook page.
