It's 1929. Two ambitious visionaries race against each other to invent a device called "television." Separated by two thousand miles, each knows that if he stops working, even for a moment, the other will gain the edge. Who will unlock the key to the greatest invention of the 20th century: the ruthless media mogul, or the self-taught Idaho farm boy?

Contains mature language.

The answer comes to compelling life in The Farnsworth Invention, the new play from Aaron Sorkin, creator of The West Wing, The Newsroom, and The Social Network.

Concord City Auditorium
2 Prince Street • Concord

Directed by Bryan Halperin
("The Hunchback of Notre Dame")

"The Farnsworth Invention" is presented by special arrangement with SAMUEL FRENCH, INC.

...And Then There Was Fun!

Ten people stranded in an isolated English country house during a raging thunderstorm. One by one they're picked off by fiendishly clever devices. As the bodies pile up in the library, the survivors frantically race to solve the mystery and identify the cunning culprit! A zany, entertaining musical that spoofs Agatha Christie mysteries and songs of the 1930's.
