Dear Mayor Bouley and Members of City Council:

This letter is a request to have signs posted at cemeteries saying "No Dogs Allowed".

You have a legal responsibility to preserve the sacredness of burial sites. Allowing dogs in the cemetery to defecate on burial sites goes against doing so. It is sacrilege.

As a parent of a child buried at Blossom Hill Cemetery having experienced this I am writing to have this request introduced into law. There are no words to describe going to the cemetery to visit your son only to find a large amount of dog feces on his gravesite.

Sincerely,

Mary Jane Haley
