sister I could not be prouder to say that he was my brother. We lost him too soon - all of us.

I wish you all health and happiness in this new year and ask only that you remember Kev and his love for our city of Concord. He was a special soul. With Peace,

Dear Mayor Boley and Concord
City Councilors,

I want to thank you all for the friendship and kindness you shared with my brother Kevin Curdie. This city, the home he knew and loved all his life, brought him to a deep desire to perform his civic duty in a unique and important way. You welcomed this and you welcomed Kevin. Thank you. I am deeply grateful. As his ↑
