B. Recording Required. No amendment to the Condominium Instruments shall become effective until an instrument setting it forth in full shall be recorded at the Merrimack County Registry of Deeds. After the conveyance of a Unit to an Owner other than the Declarant, such instrument shall either:

- (1) be signed by all Owners; or
- (2) be signed by the President and Treasurer of the Association, in which case it shall be accompanied by a certification of vote by the Secretary of the Association and shall recite that the consent and approval of an unanimous vote of the Owners required for its adoption has been obtained. Such instrument, as so executed and recorded, shall be conclusive evidence of the existence of all facts recited therein and of compliance with all prerequisites to the validity of such amendment in favor of all persons who rely thereon without actual knowledge that such facts are not true or such amendment is not valid.

C. Conforming Amendments Permitted. The Declarant reserves the right to itself and its successors in interest to amend the Condominium Instruments without the consent of any Unit Owners or First Mortgagees, but only to:

- (1) correct typographical errors; or
- (2) to bring the Condominium Instruments in compliance with New Hampshire RSA 356-B.

D. Unit Mortgagees (or Guarantors). To the extent the consent of a Unit mortgagee(s) is required for any action to be taken by the Association herein, or by the Board of Directors under the By-Laws, notice of the proposed action shall be required only if the said Unit mortgagee (or the Guarantor of such Unit mortgagee) shall provide the Board of Directors with a written request to receive any such notice and/or that it is the Unit mortgagee entitled to receive notice of such action or amendment. Such request shall specify the name and address of such mortgagee and the Unit number to which the mortgage pertains. After receipt of such notice, the Board of Directors shall notify the respective mortgagee of

- (1) any sixty (60) day delinquency in the payment of assessments or charges owed by the owner of any Unit on which it holds the mortgage;
- (2) a lapse, cancellation, or material modification of any insurance policy maintained by the Owners' Association; and
- (3) any proposed action that requires the consent of a specified percentage of eligible mortgage holders.

ARTICLE 10 ASSESSMENTS

A. Power to Fix and Determine. The Association through its Board of Directors, shall have the power to fix and determine from time to time the sum or sums necessary and adequate to provide for the Common Expenses of the Condominium and such other fees and charges as are specifically provided for in the Declaration and the Bylaws. The procedure for the determination of all such Assessments shall be as set forth in the Bylaws.

B. Owner's Obligation to Pay Assessments. Each Owner shall pay all Common Expenses, including Limited Common Assessment, assessed against him or her and all other Assessments and charges made against him or her by the Board of Directors pursuant to the Declaration or Bylaws. Any Owner having executed a contract for the disposition of his or her Unit, shall be entitled, upon written request to the President, Treasurer, or Secretary of the Association and payment of a fee which shall be fixed by the Board of Directors but which shall not exceed the largest amount allowed by the Act, to a recordable statement setting forth the amount of unpaid Assessments currently levied against that Unit. Such statement setting forth the amount of unpaid Assessment shall be binding upon the Association, the Board of Directors, and every Owner. Failure to furnish such statement within ten (10) business days following receipt of such request shall extinguish the lien created by Section 46 of the Act.

C. Unpaid Assessments. Assessments for Common Expenses, maintenance fees and other fees and charges that are unpaid for over ten (10) days after due date shall bear interest at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum (or such other rate as the Board of Directors may determine) provided said interest rate does not violate any then applicable usury statute or regulations (in which case said interest rate shall automatically be reduced to the then highest permitted rate) from due date until paid, and in addition and at the sole discretion of the Board of Directors, a late charge to be determined by the Directors of the Association, but which shall not exceed any limits imposed by the Act, shall be due and payable by Owner within 30 days of receipt of invoice. A purchaser of a Unit, other than a purchaser at a foreclosure sale or a purchaser at a sale in lieu of foreclosure, shall be liable for the payment of any Assessments against such Unit which are unpaid at the time of such purchase.

D. Lien for Unpaid Assessments.

- (1) The Association shall have a lien upon each Unit for unpaid Assessments, together with interest thereon, against the Owner thereof. Expenses incurred by the Association, including reasonable attorney's fees, incident to the collection of such Assessments or the enforcement of such lien, together with all sums advanced and paid by the Association for taxes and payments on account of superior mortgages, liens or encumbrances which may be required to be advanced by the Association, in order to preserve and protect its lien, shall be payable by the Owner and secured by such lien. The Board of Directors may take such action as it deems necessary to collect Assessments by personal action or by enforcing and foreclosing said lien, and may settle and compromise the same if deemed in the best interests of the Association. Said lien shall be effective as and in the manner provided for by the Act, and shall have the priorities established by the Act. The Association shall be entitled to bid at any sale held pursuant to foreclosure of a lien for unpaid Assessments, and to apply as a cash credit against its bid all sums due, as provided herein, and covered by the lien being enforced. In connection with any such foreclosure, the Owner shall be required to pay a reasonable rental for the Unit for the period of time said Unit is occupied by the Owner or anyone by, through or under said Owner, while such foreclosure proceeding is pending;
- (2) In the event an Institutional Lender, or other purchaser of a Unit, obtains title to such Unit as a result of foreclosure by the Institutional Lender, or if an Institutional Lender accepts a deed to such Unit in lieu of foreclosure, the person or entity so acquiring title shall not be liable for any Assessments by the Association pertaining to such Unit, or chargeable to the former Owner which became due prior to acquisition of title as a result of the foreclosure except as provided in the Act; and
- (3) No person who acquires an interest in a Unit, except through foreclosure by an Institutional Lender, or the acceptance by an Institutional Lender of a deed in lieu of foreclosure, (including, without limitation, persons acquiring title by operation of law, including purchasers at judicial sales), shall be entitled to occupancy of the Unit or enjoyment of the Common Area until such time as all unpaid Assessments due and owing by the former Owner have been paid.

ARTICLE 11
WAIVER

The failure of the Declarant, Board, Association, or Owner to insist, in any instance, upon the strict performance of any of the terms, covenants, conditions, or restrictions of this Declaration or of the Bylaws or to exercise any right herein or therein contained, or to serve any notice or to institute any action shall not be construed as a waiver or a relinquishment in the future of such term, covenant, condition, restriction, or right and the same shall remain in full force and effect. The receipt by the Association or Board of payment of any Assessment from an Owner with knowledge of the breach of any covenant hereof shall not be deemed a waiver of such breach and no waiver by the Association or Board of any provision hereof shall be deemed to have been made unless expressed in writing and signed by the Association or Board.

ARTICLE 12
ENFORCEMENT

Each Owner shall comply strictly with the provisions of the Declaration, the Bylaws, and the Rules and Regulations, if any, as the same may be lawfully amended from time to time and with decisions adopted in accordance with this Declaration and pursuant to said Declaration, Bylaws, and Rules and Regulations, if any; and failure to comply shall be grounds for an action to recover sums due for damages, or injunctive relief, or both, maintainable by the Board on behalf of the Owners, or in a proper case, by an aggrieved Owner.

ARTICLE 13
PERSONAL PROPERTY

The Board may acquire and hold, for the benefit of the Owners, tangible and intangible personal property and may dispose of the same by sale or otherwise; and the beneficial interest in such property shall be owned by the Owners in the same proportion as their respective interests in other Common Area. A transfer of a Unit shall transfer to the transferee ownership of the transferor's beneficial interest in such personal property, whether or not such personal property is specifically mentioned therein.

ARTICLE 14
SPECIAL AMENDMENTS

The Declarant reserves the right and power to record a special amendment (“Special Amendment”) to this Declaration at any time and from time to time which amends this Declaration to bring this Declaration into compliance with New Hampshire RSA 356-B or other applicable law or regulation affecting the Condominium, including any amendments to the Concord Zoning Ordinance, designed to more closely conform to applicable federal and state law; or to correct clerical or typographical errors in the Condominium Instruments or any Amendment thereto. The Declarant shall provide each Owner with notice of any Special Amendment at least thirty (30) days prior to recording such amendment.

ARTICLE 15
TERMINATION OF CONDOMINIUM

A. Termination Prior to Conveyance of A Unit. Prior to the conveyance of a Unit to an Owner other than the Declarant, the Condominium may be terminated at any time by an instrument in writing signed by the Declarant.

B. Termination After Conveyance of A Unit.

(1) Required Vote. Subsequent to the conveyance of a Unit to an Owner other than the Declarant, the Condominium may be terminated only by an instrument in writing approved and agreed to by a unanimous vote of the Owners.

(2) Effect of Termination. If the Owners vote to terminate the Condominium at any time or for any reason, then upon the recording of an instrument terminating the Condominium all of the property constituting the same shall be owned by the Owners as tenants-in-common in proportion to their respective undivided interests in the Common Area immediately prior to such recordation. As long as such tenancy-in-common lasts, each Owner and their respective heirs, successors, and assigns shall have an exclusive right of occupancy of that portion of the Condominium property which formerly constituted his or her Unit.

C. Recording Required. No termination of the Condominium shall become effective until an instrument reciting the fact of such termination shall be recorded at the Merrimack County Registry of Deeds. After the conveyance of a Unit to an Owner other than the Declarant, such instrument shall either;

(1) be signed by Owners holding the requisite voting power for its adoption; or

(2) be signed by the President and Treasurer of the Association, in which case it shall be accompanied by a certification of vote by the Secretary of the Association and shall recite that the consent and approval of the Owners required for its adoption has been obtained. Such instrument, as so executed and recorded, shall be conclusive evidence of the existence of all facts recited therein and of compliance with all prerequisites to the validity of such termination in favor of all persons who rely thereon without actual knowledge that such facts are not true or such amendment is not valid.

ARTICLE 16
NOTICES

Notice to Owners shall be sent to the address of the Owners at their respective Units and to such other addresses, including electronic mail addresses, as any of them may have designated to the Board. All notices shall be deemed to have been given when sent.

ARTICLE 17
EASEMENTS

The Declarant reserves the right to convey easements to any utility companies including, without limitation, cable, communications, electric and other utilities, which easements are necessary or desirable for the Condominium. All such easements do hereby take precedence over Unit mortgages, and Owner's right and title in and to their Units and the Common Area. Following the completion and sale of all Units by the Declarant, the Association shall thereafter have the right to convey such easements within the Common Area. The Declarant shall provide each Owner with notice of any easement conveyed at least thirty (30) days prior to recording such easement.

ARTICLE 18
SEVERABILITY

The provisions hereof shall be deemed independent and severable and the invalidity or partial invalidity of any part of this Declaration shall not affect in any manner the validity, enforceability, or effect of the balance of this Declaration.

ARTICLE 19
INTERPRETATION

The provisions of this Declaration shall be liberally construed to effectuate its purpose of creating a uniform plan for the development and operation of a Condominium consistent with the Act.

ARTICLE 20
MISCELLANEOUS

A. Exhibits and Schedules. The Exhibits and Schedules referred to in this Declaration shall be construed with, and as an integral part of, this Declaration to the same extent as if they were set forth verbatim in this Declaration.

B. Recitals. The Recitals at the beginning of this Declaration are true and correct and are incorporated into the body of this Declaration.

C. Successors and Assigns. This Declaration shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the Declarant, Owners, and their respective successors and assigns.

D. Governing Law. This Declaration and all matters arising out of or relating to this Declaration shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of New Hampshire without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule of any other jurisdiction.

ARTICLE 21
RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL

Each Unit Owner shall have a right of first refusal on the sale of any Units in the Condominium ("ROFR") pursuant to the following terms and conditions:

A. If either Unit Owner intends to sell, transfer or convey the fee interest in its Unit (or any portion thereof), excepting by means of a merger of the Unit Owner to another entity, the selling Unit Owner shall first provide written notice to the other non-selling Unit Owner of the terms and conditions upon which the Unit Owner would be willing to sell the Unit ("Offer Notice"). The Offer Notice shall set forth the material economic terms and conditions under which the selling Unit Owner is willing to sell the Unit ("Material Terms") but shall not constitute an agreement between the parties or an offer to sell the Unit. Specifically, in accordance with the ROFR, the selling Unit Owner shall provide written notice to non-selling Unit Owner of its intentions to sell the Unit ninety (90) days before listing the Unit on the open market. The selling Unit Owner's notice shall include the selling Unit Owner's asking price for the selling Unit Owner's Unit. The non-selling Unit Owner shall have the exclusive right to negotiate a purchase and sales agreement for the selling Unit Owner's Unit during said 90-day time period. In the event a purchase and sales agreement is executed, closing shall occur no later than ninety (90) days after execution of the purchase and sales agreement, or as otherwise agreed by each Unit Owner in writing. In the event the Unit Owners are unable to negotiate a mutually acceptable purchase and sales agreement within the 90-day period allotted, the selling Unit Owner shall have the right, at its sole discretion, to list its Unit on the open market and sell the Unit to a third party selected by the selling Unit Owner at its sole discretion, pursuant to subsection C. below.

B. If the non-selling Unit Owner has waived or is deemed to have waived its ROFR pursuant to paragraph A, the non-selling Unit Owner shall execute and deliver to the selling Unit Owner a written waiver in recordable form to be recorded in the Registry (a "Waiver Notice"). If the non-selling Unit Owner fails or refuses to deliver a Waiver Notice, the selling Unit Owner shall have the right to record in the Registry an affidavit stating that (i) the conveyance by the selling Unit Owner is made on the Material Terms; (ii) it has given an Offer Notice to the non-selling Unit Owner in connection with such conveyance as required by the provisions of this ROFR and attaching a copy of the Offer Notice; and (iii) after negotiating in good faith, the parties failed to agree on and execute a purchase and sale agreement within ninety (90) days after the non-selling Unit Owner's receipt of the Offer. Any third party shall be entitled to rely upon such affidavit.

C. If the ROFR is waived pursuant to the paragraph A, then the selling Unit Owner shall have the right thereafter to sell the Unit to any party on the Material Terms free and clear of the ROFR. If, however, the selling Unit Owner intends to offer the Unit for sale on more favorable terms than the Material Terms set forth in the Offer Notice, including at a lower purchase price, the selling Unit Owner shall re-offer the Unit to the non-selling Unit Owner on such Material Terms, and the same procedures shall apply as for the original Offer Notice.

D. The Right of First Offer shall not apply to any mortgages, deeds of trust, or other security instrument (a "Mortgage") made or granted by the Unit Owner or to conveyances or transfers resulting from the foreclosure of a Mortgage or by deed in lieu of foreclosure of a Mortgage. Any holder of a Mortgage or successor in title to a holder of a Mortgage shall take title to the Unit free and clear of the Right of First Refusal.
