Re: Concord Gas Holder

As you all know, Liberty Utilities (EnergyNorth Natural Gas) Corp., owns the gas holder on South Main Street. Phil Donovan informed me that the Concord Heritage Commission will apply for a grant to fund its efforts to have the gas holder placed on the National Register of Historic Places. I write to inform the City Council that Liberty Utilities does not object to the Heritage Commission's efforts toward having the gas holder placed on the Register.

Feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
