

PROCLAMATION

In the year of our Lord two thousand and twenty-five

Proclamation of Appreciation for Donald Brueggemann, manager of The Works Café

WHEREAS, Concord resident and manager of The Works Café, located in Concord, NH, Donald Brueggemann has demonstrated a long-standing commitment to supporting the community of Concord, New Hampshire, by generously supplying bagels to all election officials and election workers on Election Day; and

WHEREAS, election officials and workers begin their duties at sunrise and work tirelessly into the early hours of the next day, ensuring the democratic process runs smoothly across all ten wards of Concord; and

WHEREAS, these dedicated individuals often face long hours and high-pressure situations, and Don's generous donation of bagels has provided essential nourishment to help them start their day and maintain their energy throughout the extended hours of work; and

WHEREAS, his consistent acts of kindness have helped create a positive, collaborative environment among the election officials, volunteers, and workers, contributing to the success of each election held in Concord; and

WHEREAS, Don's generosity reflects the values of community, service, and civic engagement that are integral to the spirit of Concord; and

WHEREAS, his commitment to ensuring that those who dedicate their time and effort to upholding the democratic process are recognized and appreciated is a model for others in our community;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Byron O. Champlin, Mayor of the City of Concord, do hereby express our deepest gratitude to Donald Brueggemann for his continued support and selfless contributions to the City of Concord, particularly on Election Days. This proclamation serves as a formal acknowledgment of his generosity, and we extend our sincere thanks for the impact he has made in our community.

Attest:

Mayor Byron O. Champlin
City of Concord, New Hampshire
January 2025